

Privacy Notice

Privacy is a primary concern at CHASE Consulting Limited. This statement will provide guidance in regards to the information that CHASE Consulting Limited collects, and the ways in which CHASE Consulting Limited use that personal information.

Any personal information you supply will be treated in accordance with the relevant legislation intended to protect your information and privacy. If we hold information about you, we'll only use this for the purposes you've agreed to. We will never release by sale or otherwise information about our employees, sub-contractors, clients or business partners to any other person(s) or organisation(s) for marketing purposes unless we have your written permission to do so.

CHASE Consulting Ltd will collect data in order to communicate with you for the provision of services or information as requested.

The personal details collected will only be used to provide information or services as is reasonably expected from your requisition. Information we are legally obliged to provide will always be afforded to the relevant party.

You can withdraw your consent to us using your data at any time by contacting Libby Heaton-Jones on 07871 802990 or by emailing libby@chaseconsultingltd.co.uk.

CHASE Consulting Limited will take all reasonable technical and organisational precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of any personal information. We will store all the personal information you provide in a secure manner.

We may update this privacy notice, by posting a new version on this website.

CHASE Consulting Limited is not responsible for the privacy policies or practices of any third party.

This statement is effective from 25th April 2018.
